The Financial Times is delighted to present the sixth annual FT Investment Management Summit Asia, taking place on 15th June 2017 at the Four Seasons Hotel Hong Kong.

With the investment landscape set for dramatic change, this one-day event, chaired by senior FT journalists, will gather leading Asian pension funds, insurers, sovereign wealth funds, private equity firms, hedge funds, private banks and other industry players to share their perspectives on global markets, the key areas of opportunity and risk, and the most effective strategies for growth.

Key issues to be discussed include:

- How will Donald Trump's Presidency affect markets in Asia?
- Will we finally see an end to the multi-decade bond market outperformance?
- How long will the equities bull run last?
- In such an uncertain environment, will developed or emerging markets perform better?
- How will property and infrastructure investment evolve as interest rates begin to rise?
- And much more...

Speakers confirmed:

- Daisuke Hamaguchi, Chief Investment Officer, Pension Fund Association, Japan
- Andrew Claerhout, Senior Vice-President, Infrastructure & Natural Resources, Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan
- Fan Bao, Chairman and CEO, China Renaissance
- Paul Carrett, Group Chief Investment Officer, FWD Group
- Goodwin Gaw, Founder and Managing Principal, Gaw Capital Partners
- And many more..
